Manufacturers...

Creating links between distributors and manufacturers generating new sources for products

Manufacturers we have worked with:

Manufacturer’s Exchange

- Are you looking to expand your product range?

- The manufacturers on BearingNet are all looking for new distribution channels

- Contact the manufacturers directly via BearingNet

- Find out more information about the manufacturing company and their products via their unique profile page

- Meet them at the Manufacturer’s Showcase at the BearingNet User Meetings

Chinese Channel

- Over 70 Chinese manufacturing members with their own dedicated channel

- Find company, contact and product information

- Use the forums to ask questions about these companies

- Search by area, product type, brand etc

- A great starting point to find your Chinese partner!

“We weren’t sure if this would work for us, but we have generated many positive leads”

Don’t take our word for it...

"With more than 1.6 billion bearings available, BearingNet is a very important platform for ABF Bearings. It has allowed us to reach more customers and do more business on a worldwide scale!"

Quirijn Fabrie - ABF Bearings

"BearingNet is a vital part of our everyday sales and purchasing activities. We can reach customers we would otherwise never have done business with."

Wayne Gilbank - Acorn Industrial Services Ltd

"BearingNet helps us find bearings that are unavailable in the domestic market & creates opportunities to make new friends in the industry through forums & meetings."

Hiro Wai - CYH Importacao e Exportacao Ltda

"We are a US regional distributor with lots of inventory. BearingNet has helped us go global in a big way. We are now shipping bearings and power transmission supplies all over the world."

Jim Ordeshook - Eastern Industrial Automation
